Zielgruppe: Führungskräfte und /oder Angestellte, an die höchste Anforderungen gestellt werden. Nur im Einzeltraining!

Das Seminar wird nur in Englisch angeboten.

Das Programm: This is a very special individual coaching programme, which will be conducted strictly on one-to-one basis and will be carefully tailored to each person's profile. The purpose is to identify together with the trainer which areas of your personality need to be developed for the best results and then to start developing these areas in a dynamic, organic manner. This programme, of course, allows much more flexibility than any other (specialised) course in this series; however, it is also the most demanding one, for it requires your full dedication and discipline. Since the focus is largely on transforming those areas of your personality which hold you back most from achieving your full potential, your strong will to grow will be the ultimate make-or-break factor for the success of this training.
